WESLEY WINKLER
WINS TOP AWARD
AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA --

Wesley D. Winkler, 19, of Missoula, has received the 1970 Phi Eta Sigma Award at the University of Montana for being the outstanding freshman male at UM during the 1969-70 academic year.

Winkler, recipient of many scholarships, also has been selected as the University delegate to the 1970 National Phi Eta Sigma Convention at Baton Rouge, La., Oct. 18-20.

The award presentation from Phi Eta Sigma, a national freshman scholastic honorary, is based on Winkler's scholastic achievements and extracurricular activities.

Winkler, a 1969 graduate of Sentinel High School, Missoula, earned a 4.0 (straight A) cumulative grade point average during his freshman year at the University. He is a sophomore majoring in mathematics, and has a strong background in physics and economics at UM.

Scholarship awards received by Winkler include the $1,000 National Merit Scholarship Award, the $500 Hammond Award, the UM Alumni Association Award of three years free tuition, the Montana High School Honor Award Scholarship of $75 per quarter during his freshman year, the UM Honor Scholarship of $75 per quarter during his sophomore year, the $100 National Honor Society Award and the $100 Lennes Award from the UM mathematics department.

He is a member of Pi Mu Epsilon mathematics honorary.

Winkler is son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Winkler, 2113 Charlott Ave., Missoula.

Thomas J. Collins, director of public services at UM and of the UM Foundation, is faculty adviser to Phi Eta Sigma.
